

Electronic Devices

- Use of electronic devices for non-academic purposes is not permitted during class time. To support students' learning, electronic devices may be permitted or denied at the discretion of the instructor. Students using electronic devices will respect the work, dignity, and reasonable expectations of privacy of all individuals.