This book is about a girl named Ever Davies who has an eating disorder and tries to lose weight for her “high school crush”. Her friend, Rat is with her every step of the way, and helps her try and reach her goal.

She knows almost all the lyrics to every musical by heart and she is an amazing singer. One of her dreams is to get the lead in the school musical.

But here is the weird part; she has this voice in her head that says what other people are thinking about her and what their opinion is, even if she doesn’t want to know. She calls this voice, Skinny. But now skinny is getting out of hand and won’t stop bugging her. Will Ever meet her goal and loose the weight she desires, get rid of skinny for good? Get the lead in the school musical? Well if you want to know then you better go read Skinny and see for yourself how much fun this book is!

You can also go check out Donna Cooners website at <http://donnacooner.com/> and go check out her new book `` can’t look away `` she is an amazing author, speaker, blogger and teacher so go check her out right now.

Recommendation: I would recommend this book to grade 7 level students because kids any younger might not get it. This book is very nerve racking about what is going to happen next.
