

The Karma Club Author: Jessica Brody

Book reviewer: Lauren

Madison Kaspircova is dating the student body president of the school, until she finds out that student body president Mason, was cheating on her. She is on a hunt to seek revenge at her now, ex- boyfriend. Although, she can do it herself, her best friends Angie and Jade join with her to sneak around and get back at their ex- boyfriends as well. They decide to make a club; the Karma Club. They know where everyone is at the right time to make their plans work perfectly.

With lots of backstabbing, lying and revenge, Maddy starts to realize that this club isn't such a good idea....

I recommend this book to anyone one that likes reading about drama, comedy and romance.

Rating of this book: 4.5/5 stars