

Maze Runner By: James Dashner      Book report by Matt B.

Never give up! Thomas wakes up in a dark space called the box. The box goes up to the Glade. The Glade is a place where there is only boys and they all are teenagers that only remember their names. The Glade is surrounded by a maze. The mazes doors close at night to keep the Gladers safe from the grievers. One day Thomas is stuck in the maze at night but he survives. That makes him the first person to ever survive in the maze at night. Thomas becomes a runner and searches the maze for clues on how to escape. Thomas finds a way to escape in a place they would have never thought in there lives.

I would recommend this book to teenagers that like science fiction

I would rate maze runner 4 out of 5 stars
