

Title of Book: Maze Runner

Author: James Dashner

Genre: Adventure

Book Reviewer: Kyla

Thrilling adventures that leave you in suspense, the reality of what life really is especially in the centre of a danger zone; the Glade. This book published on October 6th 2009 by James Dashner is a series for young-adult readers; it is an exhilarating mixture of friendship and troubles and what holds it all together is order. Thomas arrives in a box to a strange place that the boys around him call the Glade. Four grievers were killed and he merely kills himself! Less than a week after he shows up a girl arrives out of the blue in a coma; the first girl, and the last one ever.

James Dashner lives in the Rocky Mountains and says he really enjoys writing books and tends to write them in series. Other than the Maze Runner series, James has written various series such as the Infinity Ring, Jimmy Fincher, The Eye of Minds and many more. He has written over fifteen books in his seven year writing career so far and says he very much enjoys it. The Maze Runner series has been his best seller and I don't have a hard time believing that at all! I enjoy his writing styles because he gives different perspectives and things you can completely relate to such as emotions or struggles that the characters you know and love are feeling.

Recommendation:

I would highly recommend this book to anyone who likes suspense and the occasional laugh, although some parts catch your emotions on edge...

I would rate this book a 4½ stars
