

ABORIGINAL EDUCATION

River East Transcona School Division recognizes and respects the important contributions made by Aboriginal People (throughout this policy and regulation this term is inclusive of the First Nations, Metis and Inuit populations) as Canada's First Peoples. The division believes in and is committed to improving the sense of connection, belonging, and academic achievement for Aboriginal students, while increasing the awareness of Aboriginal worldviews, identities, perspectives, languages and cultures, traditions, lifestyles and contributions in authentic and purposeful learning environments for Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal students alike. The division honours and values the important role that Aboriginal communities provide in supporting all students in an inclusive and culturally diverse environment.
